Force Protection Tips for Families

The 6th ASG Force Protection Awareness Campaign and the Safe Neighborhood Awareness Program remind our community's families to be alert and prepared and to practice the following force protection tips at all times:

- ♦ Instruct children to keep windows and doors locked and to never admit strangers.
- ♦ Teach children how to contact the police.

- ♦ Advise children never to leave home without telling you where they will be and who will accompany them.
- ♦ Advise children to travel in pairs or groups and to avoid isolated areas.
- ♦ Advise children to refuse automobile rides from strangers and to refuse to accompany strangers anywhere on foot. Establish a secret code word known only to you, your children and anyone authorized to pick them up.
